2009 Tuition Information

Early registration - before May 1, 2009: $550 (with a $150 non-refundable deposit.)

Registration after May 1st: $625

Special Discount: California Dance Education Association (CDEA) members receive an additional 10% discount if registered by May 1, 2009!

It would be appreciated if those who are able to fund their tuition by means of a faculty development fund grant through an educational institution would consider paying the full tuition price (whether paying before or after May 1, 2009).

EXPERIENCE

Please include a brief resume listing your occupational and educational experience.

APPLICATION QUESTIONNAIRE

Please briefly answer the following questions on a separate sheet of paper. This will help us to get to know you and your particular interests / needs related to this program. (Please provide at least one paragraph per question.)

1. What interests you about this program?

2. Please describe your experience in the fields dance, movement, and/or somatic movement practices / body work.

3. What are your personal and professional objectives regarding this program? How might you use this training upon completion?

4. Please describe your physical, emotional, & spiritual health. Are you being treated professionally at present (alternative medicine, MD. psychotherapy)? Please describe any special needs you may have while in this program.

5. Comment on your learning style regarding: cognitive learning, learning through movement and touch, learning individually and in group settings.

6. Anything else you want to share?

9. OPTIONAL, but very helpful: How did you hear about Embodiment in Education?

Are there any individuals or institutions that you know who would be interested in receiving information about this program? Please include mailing addresses or emails.

The Embodiment in Education workshop is an intensive educational program. Our intention is to provide a safe environment for learning among all the participants. As an intensive program that works with the body, intellect, emotions and spirit, we recognize that some people may find certain aspects of the program to be challenging. Through each individual's willingness to learn through movement and touch, to take responsibility for his or her personal health and safety, and to respect the other participants, everyone in the workshop can share a full, rewarding educational experience.

Our policy is to enroll qualified students without discrimination on the basis of race, religion, sex, national origin, age, physical handicap, political affiliation, or sexual orientation.

Agreement

I have carefully read the above paragraph and the full course description and I fully understand its procedures and requirements, including tuition fees for the program. I declare under penalty of perjury that all of the information I have written as part of my application to the Embodiment in Education program is true and accurate.
